Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously reported, on June 30, 2016, Starz, a Delaware corporation ("Starz"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Lions Gate Entertainment Corp., a corporation organized and existing under the corporate laws of British Columbia ("Lions Gate"), and Orion Arm Acquisition Inc., a Delaware corporation and an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Lions Gate ("Merger Sub"). The Merger Agreement provides that Merger Sub will merge with and into Starz, with Starz continuing as the surviving corporation and becoming an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Lions Gate (the "Merger").

On August 1, 2016, Lions Gate filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (Registration No. 333-212792) (the "Registration Statement"), relating to newly-issued Class A voting shares of Lions Gate and newly-issued Class B non-voting shares of Lions Gate to be issued in connection with the Merger, with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The Registration Statement includes the preliminary joint proxy statement of Starz and Lions Gate relating to the special meetings of the stockholders of Starz and the shareholders of Lions Gate to approve the Merger and the other proposals related thereto, all as more fully described therein. The Registration Statement has not been declared effective and the information in it (including the information in the preliminary joint proxy statement/prospectus that forms a part of it) is subject to change.

Investors and security holders can obtain free copies of the Registration Statement through the web site maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov (filed under Lions Gate Entertainment Corp.).

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This communication may contain certain forward-looking statements, including certain plans, expectations, goals, projections, and statements about the benefits of the proposed transaction, the Merger parties' plans, objectives, expectations and intentions, the expected timing of completion of the transaction, and other statements that are not historical facts. Such statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. Statements that do not describe historical or current facts, including statements about beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements may be identified by words such as "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "intend," "estimate," "plan," "target," "goal," or similar expressions, or future or conditional verbs such as "will," "may," "might," "should," "would," "could," or similar variations. The forward-looking statements are intended to be subject to the safe harbor provided by Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

While there is no assurance that any list of risks and uncertainties or risk factors is complete, below are certain factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained or implied in the forward-looking statements including: the substantial investment of capital required to produce and market films and television series; increased costs for producing and marketing feature films and television series; budget overruns, limitations imposed by Lions Gate's or Starz's credit facilities and notes; unpredictability of the commercial success of Lions Gate's or Starz's motion pictures and television programming; risks related to Lions Gate's or Starz's acquisition and integration of acquired businesses; the effects of dispositions of businesses or assets, including individual films or libraries; the cost of defending Lions Gate's or Starz's intellectual property; technological changes and other trends affecting the entertainment industry; the possibility that the proposed transaction does not close when expected or at all because required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals are not received or other conditions to the closing are not satisfied on a timely basis or at all; the risk that the financing required to fund the transaction is not obtained; potential adverse reactions or changes to business or employee relationships, including those resulting from the announcement or completion of the transaction; uncertainties as to the timing of the transaction; competitive responses to the transaction; the possibility that the anticipated benefits of the transaction are not realized when expected or at all, including as a result of the impact of, or problems arising from, the integration of the two companies; the possibility that the transaction may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities; potential adverse reactions or changes to business or employee relationships, including those resulting from the announcement or completion of the transaction; Lions Gate's ability to complete the acquisition and integration of Starz successfully; litigation relating to the transaction; and other factors that may affect future results of Lions Gate and Starz. Additional factors that could cause results to differ materially from those described above can be found in Lions Gate's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2016, on file with the SEC and available in the "Corporate" section of Lions Gate's website, <http://www.lionsgate.com>, under the heading "Reports" and in other documents Lions Gate files with the SEC, and in Starz's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 and in its subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, including for the quarter ended June 30, 2016, each of which is on file with the SEC and available in the "Starz Corporate" section of Starz's website, <http://www.Starz.com>, under the subsection "Investor Relations" and then under the heading "SEC Filings" and in other documents Starz files with the SEC.
